

PTM 10

Student Sample of Log Starter for Jacob Have I Loved

- When I began reading this book, I thought Louise was a depressed freak.
- My favorite part, so far, is when Auntie Braxton was on the floor, unconscious.
- I predict that Call and Louise will marry.
- I like the way the author kept me in suspense when Auntie Braxton was sick.
- I was surprised when the Captain decided to kill the cats.
- If I had written this book, I wouldn't have made it so sad and depressing.
- The storm in this story reminds me of Hurricane Katrina.
- This book made me think about our paths in life.
- This book made me realize that some writers don't want to write about happy little people who always get their way.
- When I finished reading this book I thought that Louise had successfully turned her life around.