

So, How Did It Go? Self-Evaluation Worksheet

Now that you have completed the literature circle project, take a moment to reflect on your work. Go back and look through your portfolio. Read your summaries, reactions and responses, questions, and quotes carefully. Think about how you did. Then please answer the next few questions honestly.

About You

Were you prepared for each meeting? Why or why not?

When did you actually complete your discussion sheet? At home? During school?

Did you participate during each meeting by reading directly from your discussion sheet and finishing quickly, or did you have a thoughtful conversation with your group about what you read using your discussion sheet only as a guide?

What could you do next time to make your literature circle experience better?

About the Literature Circle

What was easy and what was hard?

Would you like to change anything for our next literature circle? If so, what? If so, how?
