Help From a Hater

One time a fish swam along, yelling at bears and simply hating them.

Then one day the fish saw a worm and bit it. But the worm was attached to a fishing pole!

JERK!! Up and out of the water he went.

"HELP!!" he cried. A swordfish came and said, "Too bad, Bozo!"

A sea turtle crawled by saying, "So long, sucker!"

When a bear came he said, "I'll save you!" He leaped on the fisherman knocking him into the water and setting the fish free.

From then on the fish loved bears.
