

Things to Think About While Reading

- What I understand right now (what's happening, who's who)
- Personal experiences that I am reminded of
- Visual or sensory images I am experiencing as I read
- Questions or wonderings that pop into my head
- Predictions about what might happen next
- Parts that seem especially important, interesting, or well written
- What I think the purpose or message is