

Group Research Presentation Rubric

Criteria	Proficient	Acceptable	Needs Work
Content	The presentation includes many important facts and details.	The presentation includes some important facts and details.	The presentation includes information that is not relevant or not important.
Organization	Information is presented in a clear, well-structured, easy-to-follow manner.	Information is presented in an organized way.	Information lacks clear organization.
Group Participation	All group members contribute equally.	All group members contribute, but some more than others.	Some group members contribute; others do not.
Clarity of Speech	All group members speak clearly. Everyone is easy to understand.	Most group members speak clearly. Not everyone is easy to understand.	Some group members speak clearly. Some members are difficult to understand.
Use of Visual Aids	The group keeps referring to the visual throughout the presentation.	The group uses a visual that supports the presentation.	The group does not connect a visual to the presentation.